Finishing a Painting

As soon as one player has painted all three features of the Painting Panel on the Easel
OR

Bob moves onto the last space on the Bob Track of that Painting Panel, that Painting is considered finished.

Immediately:

1. Award any "Paint a Feature" Chill Points (if applicable)
2. Turn over the next Painting Panel from the top of the deck and place on Easel
3. Place the Bob Mover on first space of the Bob Track
4. Return all Feature Markers on Game Board to owners
5. Resume the turn of the current player

Ending the Game

As soon as one player reaches the "Chill" space on the Chill Meter, the game ends at that player is the winner!

But let's face it, you're playing a Bob Ross game, so really...

Everyone's a winner!
