Enter the exciting world behind the closed doors of executive row. Guide the destiny of a giant corporation as you strive for success in the highly competitive world of big business. This is MANAGEMENT . . . another Avalon Hill new concept adult game.

Now, for the first time the problems and decisions confronting top management are realistically duplicated in this tense and exciting game based on authentic business principles. You are president. You make the decisions. You build factories . . . buy raw materials . . . manufacture finished goods . . . sell inventory . . . budget expenses . . . borrow money . . . issue stock . . . make loans . . . draw up balance sheets . . . attempt to drive your competitors into bankruptcy.

MANAGEMENT . . . a realistic, all-skill business game in which you are a corporation president. Remember—to play an Avalon Hill game is an exhilarating challenge . . . to give one, a subtle compliment. MANAGEMENT is from the Avalon Hill library of adult games, which include GETTYSBURG,* TACTICS-II,* VERDICT®, DISPATCHER,* U-BOAT* and other popular games.
